

Every Time It Rains by Adam Smith

I can feel it, it's in the air now
I know there's something going on
Dark clouds are rolling in and suddenly I not feeling so strong

I saw the darkness in you chase away my skies of blue

And every time it rains it brings back memories
Of all the love we gave and the lies that you told to me
I think about how my life's been better, without stormy skies
I think about you, every time it rains

Every time I miss you it seems like the rain starts pouring down
My heart's swimming in deep emotion and suddenly I'm slowly starting to drown

Just when I've started to mend, here comes that feeling again

And every time it rains it brings back memories
Of all the love we made and the lies that you told to me
I think bout how my life's been better without lonely nights
I think about you...

And every time it rains it brings back memories
Of all the love we made and the lies that you told to me
I think bout how my life's been better without you by my side
I think about you

Every time it rains
